Serving our shareholders and other stakeholders in an Ethical and responsible manner is at the heart of our strategy.

The purpose of this Code of Ethics (the «Code») is to assemble the many standards put in place by TAQA Morocco in terms of Ethics, business conduct and transparency. It outlines the policies and expectations we have for ourselves, along with some key terminology definitions and recommendations on how to act/react when faced with certain situations.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

The Code will constantly remind us of the key requirements in terms of Ethics and Compliance that must guide our behavior and inform our judgments in the day-to-day administration of the company’s operations. It also establishes the standards to which we can refer.

This Code, however, cannot cover all of the instances you may face as you accomplish your duties, because Ethics is, above all, a matter of common sense, morality, and compliance with legal and regulatory frameworks. This is why the Ethics & Compliance Office of TAQA Morocco ('E&C Office') is constantly available to advise and assist you in making the appropriate decisions in the course of carrying out your assignments/ services for TAQA Morocco.

The guidelines contained in this Code are binding on all of us. Each and every one of us shall comply with them at all times so that our behavior remains in line with TAQA Morocco’s values.

I would like to thank each and every one of you for taking the time to read this Code carefully and for adhering to the principles and guidelines set out therein. All of us, TAQA Morocco Personnel and Business Partners alike, have a responsibility to protect the Company’s reputation and prevent any activity that could harm it. I remain convinced – as I have always been – that I can rely on your personal and collective dedication and commitment to always place Ethics at the center of our behavior, practices, and Company values.

An Introduction to our Code of Ethics

We at TAQA Morocco understand the importance of the infrastructure and services we deliver to the millions of people who depend on us every day. Given the critical nature of our operations, our shareholders, Management Board, Supervisory Board and other stakeholders require us to uphold the highest professional standards in all aspects of our operations.

These standards can only be met if we work with integrity and follow the laws and regulations that apply to our organization.

Effective risk management allows us to concentrate on our goals, therefore we must create an environment where people feel safe raising concerns and know they will be addressed. We foster a secure and equitable workplace by encouraging honesty, fairness, and mutual regard.

By following our Code, we not only comply with legal requirements, but also strive to operate with the highest levels of Ethics and integrity. This Code is supplemented by a number of comprehensive Policies that provide additional guidance on the topics discussed here.

If you require any additional assistance, guidance, or clarification, please contact the E&C Office of TAQA Morocco.

Anti-Bribery & Corruption and Anti-Fraud

We have a zero-tolerance approach to Bribery, Corruption, and Fraud, and while we allow the exchange of modest Gifts, Hospitality, and Entertainment, these must not constitute or give rise to any suspicion of Bribery or Corruption.

The principles

- Bribery and Corruption can take several forms. They can be obvious – such as a Bribe in Cash –, or subtle – such as employment offers/ promises, commissions or excessive Gifts, Hospitality or Entertainment.
- Bribes and Corruption are illegal worldwide, and the term «Bribe» is broadly defined under international anti-Corruption laws. These laws can be far-reaching and have a serious impact on you as an individual, regardless of where you operate.
- Be cautious when dealing with Public Officials to avoid even the perception of Bribery, as dealing with Public Officials is subject to further scrutiny by relevant authorities.
- The exchange of Gifts, Hospitality and Entertainment is permitted in certain circumstances, but is never acceptable when combined with an attempt to improperly influence a business related decision.

Remember that...

- There should be no exchange of or promise of exchange of Gifts, Hospitality or Entertainment during an ongoing bid or tender process.

Your responsibilities

- Do not offer, promise or give a Bribe or other improper payment in order to obtain a business or personal advantage.
- You must never ask for or accept a Bribe and you must immediately report any direct or indirect offerings of a Bribe to the E&C Office of TAQA Morocco, in accordance with the Speak-Up Policy.
- Never make or request a Facilitation Payment unless it is absolutely required to avoid personal injury or risk to life (in the case of such payment).
- All Gifts, Hospitality and Entertainment must be modest, reasonable and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of the Anti-Bribery & Corruption and Anti-Fraud Policy.

Bribery costs the world an estimated $4,000 billion a year¹. You can play a part in preventing it.

- You can raise:

The principles

- Our Business Partners’ conduct can have serious legal and reputational consequences for us. Thorough Due Diligence on our Business Partners reduces our exposure to Third Party risk.
- Due Diligence should be appropriate, risk-based and carried out throughout our relationship with each Business Partner.
- We ensure that our Business Partners contractually commit to behave in an Ethical and compliant manner, in accordance with our Business Partner Code of Conduct.

Your responsibilities

- Ensure that a risk-based «Know Your Customer – KYC» Due Diligence check is carried out on potential Business Partners before formally engaging with them. This involves verifying the Business Partner’s identity using reliable sources of information. This risk assessment should determine whether you need to carry out an Enhanced Due Diligence.
- Conduct Sanctions screening on all potential Business Partners to guarantee we do not conduct business with sanctioned entities.
- All relationships with Business Partners and other Third Parties must be documented through a written contract drafted or reviewed by the Legal Department.

Remember that...

- The Business Partner Due Diligence Policy sets out guidance on a range of factors to consider when assessing any risk associated with Business Partners. These factors may include the location of the Business Partner, the area in which it operates, the nature of the services it provides and the value of the contract.
- You should undertake periodic Due Diligence reviews to ensure that the risks associated with your Business Partners have not changed. Where necessary, Enhanced Due Diligence shall be implemented in accordance with our Business Partner Due Diligence Policy.
- Raise:
 - Any questions, concerns, doubts and voluntary disclosures to the E&C Office of TAQA Morocco, in accordance with the Speak-Up Policy, via the e-mail address bureau.ec@taqamorocco.ma or the helpline (<https://www.taqamorocco.ma/en/group/ethics-compliance>).

- Many countries impose Trade Controls on the import, export, transfer, re-export and re-transfer of military goods and Dual-Use Items. The rules are complex and encompass both the transfer of software and data, as well as the movement of physical goods.
- It may be possible to obtain a License, which will enable you to carry out activities that would otherwise be restricted by Sanctions or Trade Controls.
- The Sanctions and Trade Controls have far-reaching effects that impact our business around the world.

Your responsibilities

- Understand and comply with the requirements of the Sanctions and Trade Controls Policy and the Business Partner Due Diligence Policy.
- Ensure that Business Partners are subject to a Sanctions screening before signing, entering into or renewing any agreements.
- Do not have any relationships with any Sanctioned Persons.
- Ensure that a risk-based assessment has been carried out, taking into account the location of the potential Business Partner, prior to any import, export, transfer, re-export or re-transfer of goods, software or data. If any Sanctioned Countries are involved, you must obtain prior written approval from the E&C Office of TAQA Morocco.

Remember that...

- Before engaging with a new Business Partner or starting a business relationship in a country where we have not conducted business before, always understand the potential impact of Sanctions and Trade Controls.
- Certain nationalities may be restricted from accessing or handling Controlled Items. You should know the restrictions associated with the Controlled Items you work with.
- Sanctions and Trade Controls are constantly changing. You must monitor your Business Partners and be aware of any regulatory changes that may affect your ability to work with them.
